

State of Wellfleet Harbor Conference

FREE and
All Welcome!

Saturday, November 5, 2016
8:30 AM–1:30 PM at the Wellfleet Elementary School

14th Annual Conference – presentations this year include:

Population Study of White Sharks off Cape Cod, including Wellfleet Harbor
Gray Seals as a Sentinel Species for the Massachusetts Marine Nearshore Ecosystem
Snapping Turtles and River Herring: Predator-Prey Encounters on the Herring River
Two-Year Acoustic Telemetry Study of Horseshoe Crab Movements in Wellfleet Harbor
Benthic Habitat Maps in Wellfleet Harbor

Free continental breakfast provided and discounted lunch offered ~ thanks to generous vendors and local businesses!

For a complete agenda visit www.massaudubon.org/wellfleet-harbor-conference

Funding for the 14th Annual State of Wellfleet Harbor Conference is provided by:

Friends of Herring River
Wellfleet and Truro, Massachusetts

