

State of Wellfleet Harbor Conference

FREE and
All Welcome!

Saturday, November 2, 2019

8:30 AM–1:30 PM

at the Wellfleet Elementary School

© Stephen Broker

17th Annual Conference – presentations this year include:

Striped Bass Management: Where We've Been; Where We're Going

Horseshoe Crabs in Wellfleet – Crawling toward Functional Extinction

What's in a Name – Wellfleet Harbor's "Black Mayo"

It's About Time: A Brief Overview of Changing Phenology in the Gulf of Maine Ecosystem

Hydrodynamics and Sediment Transport in the Herring River Estuary: Past, Present, and Restored

Free continental breakfast provided and discounted lunch offered ~ thanks to generous vendors and local businesses!

For a complete agenda visit www.massaudubon.org/wellfleet-harbor-conference

Funding for the 17th Annual State of Wellfleet Harbor Conference is provided by:

Friends of Herring River
Wellfleet and Truro, Massachusetts

WELLFLEET
CONSERVATION TRUST

CAPE
COD5

 Mass Audubon
Wellfleet Bay Wildlife Sanctuary

