

MARCH 24, 2020:

Sky Freyss-Cole: It's great to see so many people on this call. Thanks, Wellfleet for doing this.

Courtney Butler: 508-349-3702 - PD Dispatch

Courtney Butler: The Selectboard is meeting at 1PM tomorrow, Weds 4/1. Meeting information is on the Town website. Dan will bring recommendations to the Board at that time.

harrietarnoldi: Sending wishes for health, courage and compassion to all (harriet korim arnoldi)

Sky Freyss-Cole: needs@wellfleet-ma.gov harrietarnoldi: Next meeting?

Ryan Curley: What is the rational provided for withholding community statistics?

Denya Levine: What is the Facebook Address? The Terri.Frazier: Reminder to click on links on the left of that page ~ some people cannot find it.

Dan Hoort: On Facebook please see the Wellfleet, MA page or the Wellfleet Community Space

Courtney Butler: Courtney.Butler@wellfleet-ma.gov

Alex: Is there a new date for the town election?

harrietarnoldi: Is there a town or multi-town hotline being considered in anticipation of swelling population and numbers of cases

Dan Hoort: Town election date has not yet been determined, we are currently expecting mid June

Dan Hoort: The Town's main line (508) 349-0300 is the main line. It is manned every day during work hours.

Calls or recorded messages are forwarded to the departments

Denya Levine: Governor Baker is giving an update daily at 1:00 on WBUR radio.

MaryEllen's iPad: Has or will the town post digital signs in Rt 6 advising travelers here to self quarantine for 14 days?

Courtney Butler: There are signs now - a sign board right past the Marconi site

Courtney Butler: Additional signage will be put up; and there is a press release on the Town website

Courtney Butler: This call is being recorded and will be available on the Town website and social media pages

Dan Hoort: The digital sign was on loan from the County and has limited functionality. We have ordered a new digital sign for Wellfleet which should be here within the week.

Jude: I thought we already had a sign, no?

Dan Hoort: The digital sign was on loan from the County and has limited functionality. It's on its last legs

Courtney Butler: NEEDS@WELLFLEET-MA.GOV

Dan Hoort: and TownAdministrator@wellfleet-ma.gov

Dan Hoort: We're here to help and respond

Lynn Southey: needs@wellfleet ... please repeat the email

Courtney Butler: NEEDS@WELLFLEET-MA.GOV

Courtney Butler: It is on the website in many places

Courtney Butler: and TownAdministrator@wellfleet-ma.gov

Denya Levine: We have 72 people on this meeting. When there is another Zoom meeting, how can the town get the word out to more people?

ElisazoomsforMEF: much needed: grocery shopping orders deliveries to cut down shopper traffic and exposure at stores.

Dan Hoort: Agree, we absolutely need to limit exposure at our grocery stores.

Janet Reinhart: THANK YOU!

Denise Coffey: Thanks for your work, everyone.

harrietarnoldi: Def agree re masks (and wish the checkout clerks wore them...THANKS for getting this meeting happening

Sky Freyss-Cole: THANK YOU!!!

MaryEllen's iPad: Thank you very much to all who arranged this meeting! Take care.
